HCAC Provides practical support through funding, advertising and information. In addition, the staff advises and assists in the development and nurturing of creative projects, events organisation, mentoring and a huge component of their skill is by way of connecting people with each other—or with appropriate resources.

Good reasons for joining & renewing your membership with HCAC

- Be kept up-to-date on what's going on arts wise with weekly promotional emails and regular newsletters
- Access to HCAC information and advisory services
- List your event/exhibition on the website
- Inclusion in our weekly promotional email, What's On, that reaches 1000+ arts enthusiasts
- Inclusion in Arts Seen listing that is published weekly in The Hamilton Press
- Attend the AGM and vote for the board/become a board member
- Access to Legalised Art - free legal advice related to the creative arts
- Artistic Development Grant has been established by the Hamilton Community Arts Council to support artists of various fields who require funding to develop their arts practice.

Volunteering

If you are interested in volunteering to help with one of the HCAC projects or events, or in a particular arts area of interest, please contact the Arts Manager - Tracey Wood.
